(Date)

Dear (Creditor Name/Collection Agency Name):

On (date), I received your letter demanding payment of ($$ amount). I did not open this account and incur this unpaid balance. Someone, other than myself, wrongfully used my personal information to obtain a line of credit/service. Your company extended a line of credit/services to someone other than myself. Your company is a crime victim and should file a police report with the appropriate jurisdiction(s).

You are hereby notified that on (date), I filed an identity theft report with the Los Angeles Police Department. The case number (#) is _____. For information on obtaining a copy call LAPD Records at (213) 485-XXXX.

(Closing),

(Your name and address)

Call the fraud units of each of the three credit bureaus to report Identity Theft. Ask to have a "Fraud Alert/Victim Impact" statement placed in your credit file asking that creditors call you before opening any new accounts.

California Penal Code 530.5

(A) Every person who willfully obtains personal identifying information, as defined in subdivision (b), of another person, and uses that information for any unlawful purpose, including to obtain, or attempt to obtain credit, goods, services, or medical information in the name of the other person without the consent of that person, is guilty of a public offense.

What is Identity Theft?

Identity theft involves acquiring key pieces of someone's identifying information, such as name, address, date of birth, social security number and mother's maiden name, in order to impersonate an individual. This information enables the identity thief to commit numerous forms of fraud which include, but are not limited to, taking over the victim's financial accounts, opening new bank accounts, purchasing automobiles, applying for loans, credit cards, Social Security benefits, renting apartments, and establishing services with utility/phone companies.

What to do if you become a victim:

Set up a folder to keep a detailed history of this crime.

Keep a log of all your contacts and make copies of all documents.

Contact all credit companies by phone and writing in order to inform them of the problem.
